4. The Respondent, Madison Dole, is the mother of the minor child herein and is a resident of this State and has been a resident of this State for not less than one hundred eighty (180) days immediately preceding the filing of this cause of action and she currently resides at 510 Roy Kidd Ave., Corbin, Kentucky 40701. Therefore, the Court FINDS that the parties are the biological and legal parents of the minor child herein. Further, the Court further FINDS that the minor child was born of the party's marriage.
5. Pursuant to K.R.S. 403.420, the minor child's home state is the Commonwealth of Kentucky and specifically, Knox County, Kentucky. The minor child has resided with the Respondent all of his life and currently resides with the Respondent at 510 Roy Kidd Ave., Corbin, Kentucky 40701.
8. The parties herein agree and acknowledge and the Court so ORDERS that the child was born of their marriage and as a result they share the same legal rights to the child as joint custodians of him.
9. Due to the current distance between the parties, the parties agree with the Petitioner receiving visitation with the minor child three (3) weekends per month. The parties shall agree to the specific weekends that the Petitioner receives parenting time with the minor child considering the schedules of the parties and the schedules of all persons involved with transportation. Should the parties reside together in the future with the minor child, this provision of visitation shall be void.
6. The Respondent agrees to transport the child to and from each visit with the Petitioner. The Petitioner agrees to pay the Respondent for travel expenses to transport the minor child in the amount of $75-$100 for gas per visitation trip to Missouri or to the halfway point in Indiana. The parties agree to use a mutually agreeable individual as an intermediary, for communication and contact purposes relative to visitation or any other matters concerning the child, including medical emergencies. A mutually agreeable individual shall also be the responsible 3rd party to receive and deliver the child to the Petitioner and Respondent for the exchange of the child for parenting time.

7. The parties agree that the Petitioner shall pay child support to the Respondent in the amount of FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($500.00) per month, effective at time of signing this agreement. Should the parties reside together at a later date, this child support obligation shall be void. Currently the parties do not have any work related or educational related, day care expenses. Should the parties in the future incur work related, or education related daycare expenses, the Petitioner shall be responsible for paying 100% of these fees payable within thirty (30) days after proof shown of the expense. The minor child currently has a Medical Card. However, should either party be able to secure private medical insurance for the child through their employment at a reasonable cost, they shall secure said insurance for the child. Should circumstances change in regard to the parties income then this provision can be amended.

8. In accordance with KRS 403.838 the Parties give the following information concerning the minor child:

(a) The parties have not participated as a party or witness or in any other capacity in any other litigation concerning custody of their child in this or any other state.

(b) The parties have no information of any other custody proceedings concerning the child, pending in a court of this state or any other state.
